

Canola Technology Interactive workshop for Advisers and Growers

Gain the technical skills and knowledge to achieve reliable and profitable canola production by attending the Better Canola Technology Update. Learn the best management practices for successful canola production and hear about the latest research and advancements in canola.

TIME: 11am – 5pm
DATE: Tuesday, 6th August, 2013
PLACE: Munglinup Hall
RSVP's: Essential by 1st August, 2013
BOOKINGS: www.trybooking.com/DDX0
INQUIRIES: Johanna Gastevich
jgastevich@giwa.org.au or 08 6189 2457

Cost: $100 (Includes afternoon tea, lunch and comprehensive manual)

Attendees will receive a manual which will be a valuable resource to assist in growing canola.

PROGRAM

TIME	TOPIC	SPEAKER
11:00am – 11:20am	REGISTRATION
11:20am – 11:50am	Managing Production Risk	Alan Meldrum Pulse Australia
11:50am – 12noon	Managing Price Risk	Jon Slee (video) GIWA/AOF
12noon – 12:30pm	Establishment	Phil Smyth Farmanco
12:30pm	LUNCH
1:15pm – 1:45pm	Nutrient Management	Andrew Heinrich Farm and General
1:45pm – 2:30pm	Disease Management	Angela Van de Wouw Morcroft Grain Technology
2:30pm – 3:10pm	New Oilseeds Types	Mark Seymour Department of Food and Agriculture WA
3:10pm	AFTERNOON TEA
3:30pm – 4:15pm	Swathing and Desiccation	Kathi Hertel NSW Department of Primary Industries
4:15pm – 5:00pm	Grain Storage	Ben White WA Co-ordinator, GRDC Stored Grain Project

This event is supported by the Munglinup Local Farmer Group

Department of Agriculture and Food

